Managing a Supply Chain in an SME

The Australian Small to Medium Enterprise (SME) market is make up 97% of all Australian businesses, produce one third of total GDP, and employ 4.7 million people. SMEs represent 90% of all goods exporters and over 60% of services exporters.

Supply chains in small businesses are typically characterised by having limited resources, budgets, and priority. So, if this is you, how do you get the most out of your Supply Chain and add significant value to your organisation?

Keynote Speaker – Steven Murdoch, Supply Chain Manager, Advanced Breaking Technology

Steve Murdoch has spent more than 30 years working in Supply Chain in a variety of SMEs in Western Australia. He runs a supply chain team of two people within a company of 16 employees and a global supply chain with suppliers and customers all over the world.

Steve will share his insights into the key areas of focus; the types of people best suited to working in this environment; and how you lift the profile of Supply Chain Management within an SME.
